INFORMATION

In celebration of our 125th anniversary, we invite the region to celebrate the signature sights, sounds, smells, and tastes of summer. Whoop-Up Days and the Lethbridge & District Pro Rodeo create high-energy atmospheres on the Lethbridge & District Exhibition grounds with re-imagined event experiences.

Lethbridge & District Exhibition is honoured to partner with the Blackfoot Confederacy to offer Indigenous cultural programming at Whoop-Up Days 2022. The introduction of a Pow Wow at this year's Whoop-Up Days will honour the rich and unique heritage of the Blackfoot people and share the important stories of First Nations peoples with all. This year's parade will kick off festivities on August 23rd with parade marshals Chief Roy Fox of Kainai Nation, Chief Stanley Grier from Piikani Nation, and Chief Ouray Crowfoot from Siksika Nation.

The Lethbridge & District Exhibition invites you to celebrate summer with us at Whoop-Up Days!

Dates: August 24 – 25

Hours: Grand Entry will be at 1 p.m. on both days

Registration is free and competitive Pow Wow will include payout. Please read through the application carefully.
